

Subash Gupta

Dr Subash Gupta is the Chairman of Max Centre for Liver and Biliary Sciences (CLBS) at Max Super Speciality Hospital, Saket, New Delhi, India. This Centre conducts over 300 transplants every year and so far the Centre has carried out over 3500 living donor liver transplantation. He is one of the pioneers of living donor liver transplantation in India and trained many teams.

Dr Gupta has published over 100 papers in surgery and transplantation, and his research interest focuses on improving post-operative management of sick recipients with high MELD scores. He has been the past President of Liver Transplant Society of India.